

Announcing: A Beginning Indexing Class (On-Line)

We are offering a 60-minute on-line class for members or friends of any age that want to learn the basics of how to Index records in Family Search.

Family Search has just published its 8 billionth searchable name. 7 Billion of the 8 billion names have been added in the past decade alone. Many of those have come from the Indexing efforts of records around the world.

Indexing is a skill that can be learned very easily and is a simple and flexible way for members and friends of all ages to participate in the important Temple and Family History work. We encourage all who would like to learn the basics and begin to participate in indexing to join us for this on-line course.

No need to sign up or register, if you want to participate, just join this Zoom meeting

Date: Thursday October 8, 2020
